PILKINGTON

Sir William Pilkington 8th Baronet 1775-1850
c 14 Nov 1775 .....
m 25 Jun 1825 Mary 2nd dau and coheir of Thomas Swinnerton of "Butterton Hall", Butterton, Staffs; (assumed herself the name Milborne-Swinnerton); d 11 Dec 1854
d 30 Sep 1850
chn: Thomas Edward Pilkington b 19 Mar 1829 below
William Milborne Swinnerton Pilkington b 8 Jun 1831 below
Lionel Pilkington b 7 Jul 1835 below
Mary Pilkington
Sophia Portia Pilkington
Elizabeth Pilkington

Butterton is a small township of about 355 acres and 56 inhabitants, two and a half miles W by N of Trentham. The manor and estate passed from the late Thomas Swinnerton, Esq, to Lady Pilkington, relict of the late Sir William Pilkington, Bart, who died in 1850, shortly after he and his lady had completed the erection of Butterton Hall, which is a large and handsome structure of mixed architecture, standing near the old hall, which will shortly be taken down. Lady Pilkington resides at the new hall, and her eldest son, Sir Thomas Edward Pilkington, Bart, at Chevet Hall, Yorkshire.

Butterton Church, St Thomas, is a small neat Gothic structure, erected in 1845. It is a perpetual curacy, in the patronage of Lady Pilkington, and incumbency of the Rev William Stone, MA.

Thomas Edward Pilkington 9th Baronet 1829-1854
b 19 Mar 1829
unm.
d 7 Feb 1854

William Milborne Swinnerton Pilkington 10th Baronet 1831-1855
b 8 Jun 1831
unm.
d 12 Nov 1855

Lionel Pilkington LATER Milborne-Swinnerton-Pilkington 11th Baronet 1835-1901
b 7 Jul 1835
d 25 Jun 1901
(took by royal licence, the surnames Milborne-Swinnerton) 15 Feb 1856
(added the surname Pilkington by Act of Parliament)
(presented at Butterton) 1856 & 1875

[BP]